ORTHODONTICS
New York

New York County Dental Society
DSSNY Member Since 1994

"I joined organized dentistry seeking advice/guidance from my colleagues who have built private practices in Manhattan. I felt that I needed to learn the day-to-day workings of the dental business. Organized dentistry provides a gathering of colleagues with experience, along with a desire to improve upon that experience and to share."

- NYU College of Dentistry 1991
- NYU Postdoctorate in Orthodontics 1993
- Full-time private practice limited to orthodontics. Owns building in which practice is located.
- New York County representative to DSSNY Council on New Dentist, Chair Eastern Dental Society Centennial/Scientific Program, Treasurer American Association Women Dentists (Manhattan Chapter), Host Alpha Omega Dental Study Clubs, Teaches and runs annual children's workshop at Museum Natural History, Manhattan; donates salary to further museum programs for children.
- Married, Enjoys snowboarding, bump skiing, rollerblading, yoga, interior decorating, gardening, tennis, mountain biking, collecting original art. Hopes to become integral part of community by volunteering time in neighborhood activities, and to raise a family in the same building in which she practices.
